"For everything there is a season,
and a time for every matter under heaven:
a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;

a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

What gain has the worker from his toil?"

January 19

Dear Janie -

your request of the Princeton Undergraduate Council certainly came as an enjoyable change from the usual tasks which we are burdened with. Judging the Malabar High School's yearbook contest afforded the members of the Council a pleasant break from their duties and examination studies.

With best wishes to the entire Princeton staff -

Yours -
Steve Herrmann

Students Learned About Government

Charlie Beard and Dale Scholl represented Mala-bar at Boy's State for its annual June state-wide convention. Ohio University, Athens, Ohio, was host to the group. Thirteen thousand boys composed the Nationalist and Federalist Parties. Dale was elected County Prosecutor of the Federalist Party. Charlie was a Nationalist and a member of the House of Representatives.

The purpose of Boy's State was to learn the basic functions of government.

Susan Jackson had the honor of representing Mala-bar for a ten-day session at Girl's State last June. Twenty-five hundred girls representing various schools throughout the state learned about government, campaigning, and elections. Running against forty girls, Sue became Lieutenant Governor, the only successful Nationalist Party winner in a near Federalist-Party sweep. As Lieutenant Governor she acted as Vice President, President of the Senate, and she often consulted with the governor. Sue then took a tour of the capitol and spoke in front of the Ohio Senate.

Charlie Beard and Dale Scholl boarded the bus for Boy's State.

Charlie, Sue, and Dale compared notes.

Committee Inspired School Spirit

Student Council brought together the presidents and vice-presidents of leading clubs to function as a school-spirit committee. Student leaders working together resulted in better communication, a feeling of coordination, and purpose.

Alan Wilson demonstrated the team's intent to "wreck" the Rams.

Linda Johnson wished Mike Dorner "Good Luck!" in the coming basketball game.

Students signed their names to the Madison "Ram," which was burned in a pre-game bonfire.

Members of the Student Council often conferred with Mr. Cellini, advisor.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS — Standing: President — John Goode, and Vice President — Paul Stillwell. Seated: Treasurer — Diane Patton, and Secretary — Barb Wilson.

Student Council Faced Important Problems

This past year Student Council was responsible for the adoption of an alma mater. At Christmas food baskets were distributed to needy families in the Mansfield area. They also sponsored the Cardinal Conference exchange program to promote better understanding among the participating schools. Student Council was responsible for the upkeep of the concession stand.

Students enjoyed candy and Council made money.

Debbie Meese pointed out the highlights of the planetarium to the Cardinal Conference exchange students.

Foreign Students Made Valuable Contributions

Per Arne expresses his talent to the enjoyment of Lettie.

Per Arne and his American brother, Paul, scan a Norwegian newspaper.

Lettie shows Maria the skill of playing a popular Philippine game.

Student Scientists

Steve Gfeller combined chemicals.

Debbie Reese investigated marine life.

Sandy Oliver worked with analytical balance.

Gunther Lahm studied plants.

Tom Moffatt, President of the Pep Club, added spirit to the Pep Assemblies.

Students Showed Confidence In Athletic Teams

Malabar's students versus faculty basketball game, kept onlookers amused.

Malabar's student body pledged support of the athletic teams.

Mr. Heasley directed Sue and Bruce.

Sue Jackson was persuasive as a suburbanite housewife.

Characters engaged in lively conversation.

Jrs Presented "The Curious Savage" On May Playbill

Tryouts for the play were held in the little theatre.

Mr. Ray Gerrell, director of the play, emphasized a point.

Students glanced at the program before being seated in the auditorium.

Students Displayed Theatrical Talents At Drama Nights

Students practiced for evening performances.

The successful presentation of the Junior Class Play, "The Curious Savage," was held May 6 and 7. The play, written by John Patrick, was directed by Mr. Ray Gerrell, advisor of the Junior Class.

The Drama II Class presented two Drama Nights this year. In the first presentation, "Caleb Stone's Death-watch" and "A Maidens Prayer" were given. On April 15 and 16, "Jacob Comes Home" and "The Thompsons" were offered to public viewing.

The Thompson family exchanged small-town gossip.

Outside Activities Were Varied

"I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the House of the Lord."

Skiing was a popular winter activity.

Student equestrian was rearing to ride.

Reading is the route to knowledge.

Weekends were favorite show times.

Wilbur Lanier (31), dives for the Dover ball carrier. Assisting in the effort are Dick Bajai (52), and Chuck Gagich (60).

Statistics do not reveal a true picture of this season's two victories, which were non-Cardinal Conference battles, and eight defeats.

After losing the first two games, the Falcons upset Newark, ranked nineteenth in the state at that time, eighteen to thirteen.

The team dropped into a disappointing five-game slump the following week with a heartbreakng Homecoming loss to Ashland on a touchdown in the final period.

The Falcons bounced back to crush Wadsworth in the last game thirty-seven to nothing. The rain-soaked field failed to keep Malabar from rolling up its biggest score in three years of football.

The Cleveland Brown's Vince Costello was speaker at Malabar's Fall Sports Banquet. Among those recognized were Co-Captains Dale Scholl and Paul Johns, and Wilbur Lanier who was honored as the team's most valuable player.

“Heavenly” Was Homecoming Theme

“Heavenly” was the theme of Malabar’s second Homecoming. The Queen wore a white satin gown and the girls of the court wore dresses in varying shades of pink. The pillared stage in blue, white, and gold completed the scene. The Rev. Wray Smith, pastor of the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, was the guest speaker for the assembly.

Queen Karen reigned at the Malabar-Ashland game surrounded by her royal court and a multitude of spectators. A heavenly dance with music by the “Rebounds” was held in Malabar’s cafeteria honoring the queen and her court.

Malabar Harriers Rebuild

This season saw the Falcon Cross Country Team rebuilding. With a considerable amount of experience behind them, the squad exhibited fine promise for next year.

Receiving varsity letters at Malabar's Fall Sports Banquet were Ken Karsmizki, Jay Booth, Dan Burton, Mark Smith, Jerry Moder, Rick Miller, Bob Currens, and Paul Gilbert. Coach Joe Romano presented trophies to senior Ken Karsmizki (most points) and to sophomore Rick Miller (most improved).

Leading the team in their respective weight classes were Bob Burton, (103), Ed Jefferson, (112), Dan Burton, (120), Les Revennaugh, (127), Bob Armstrong, (133), Ken Karsmizki, (138), Doug Matney, (145), Ron Burton, (154), Jordan Christiansen, (165), Bill Redman, (175), and Jack Maglott, (Heavy-weight).

Among this season's Highlights was Ken Karsmizki's capture of the 138 pound-class championship in the Cardinal Conference Wrestling Championships held at Malabar.

Basketball Team Registered 4-14 Record

The Falcons had a phenomenal hard-luck season finishing with a record of 2-10 in the Cardinal Conference and 4-14 overall. Hopes started high as the cagers swept their first two games: one, a hard-fought thriller against Lexington, 49-48, and the other over Mt. Vernon, 59-53. The following week saw, in the 1965-66 conference debut, Malabar beaten in the last ten seconds of play by the New Philadelphia Quakers, 61-60. The final battle of the year versus Shelby typified the frustrating season during which the team dropped nine of their fourteen losses by five or less points. It took four overtime periods for the Whippets to beat the Falcons 73-68. Malabar saw one game of tournament action, falling to Lexington, 60-51, at the Marion Coliseum.

Leading the team in scoring honors was senior Alan Wilson who, in his first year of high school basketball, managed to collect 191 points, followed by Nick Gerber's 188. Wilson also topped the squad in rebounding with 130. Nick Gerber and Mike Dorner were second with 88 rebounds each.

Swimmers Splash to Honor

Craig D'Ooge demonstrates winning form.

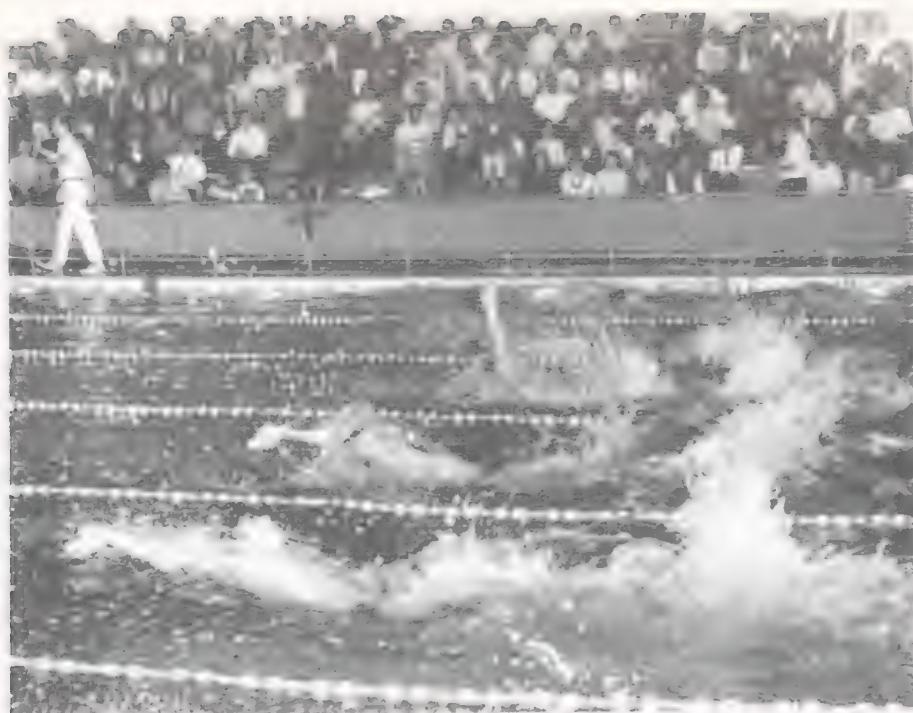

Successfully defending their Cardinal Conference championship, the Falcon swim team, led by Coach Frank Bartholow, finished the season with a dual meet record of 13-1. The tankers have compiled the astounding mark of 24-2 over the last two years.

Depth was a valuable key to the team's achievements. Typifying this was their 48-47 win over Newark in which they won only three of the eleven events. Malabar added to its string of victories by taking top honors in the Denison and the Malabar Relays. In the Denison Relays at Granville, two first places and three second places contributed to the team's sixty points, ten points better than the nearest opponent. At the Malabar Relays, the Falcons proved to be stingy hosts as they edged their closest competitor, Newark, by three points, 70-67.

Qualifying in the district meet at Bowling Green State University for the state finals were Jim Steen, in the 200-yard individual medley, Bill Orton, in the 100-yard breaststroke, and the 400-yard freestyle relay team of Bob Ferris, Craig D'Ooge, Dan Drouhard, and Jim Steen. Orton's fifteenth place, Steen's tenth, and the relay team's tie for fourth gave Malabar twentieth place in Ohio.

Tension mounts for Bob Ferris, as starting time approaches.

The Falcon Tankers were victorious in the Malabar Relays.

Victory resulted in a splash for Coach Bartholow.

Executive Committee Represented Class Of 1966

First row: Ann McCormick, Anne McGinty, Cathy Murphy, Mark Hannan, Robin Risser. Second row: Sandy Holland, Karen Coon, Karen Rose, Nancy Ginnever, Mrs. Preuninger—Advisor, Rick Rollins. Third row: Nancy Brooks, Connie Bailet, Linda Johnson. Fourth row: Buff Langacher, Don Nelson, Diane Talaba, Sarah Nelson, Bob Scurfield. Fifth row: Sandy Anderson, Wayne Hinz, Linda Lair, Tom Bosko, Debbie Meese, Ward Ransdell, Diane Turner, Barb Wilson.

The Class of 1966 was the first class to complete all three years at Malabar. Working to further traditions that the previous classes had earnestly established, adding new trends to keep Malabar absolutely current, and asserting their own individuality were the responsibilities accepted by Malabar's first true graduating class.

Electing officers, selecting advisors, and launching the first money-making projects started the class into unified motion. Homecoming was a major project of the junior year, along with the class play. The senior year brought a change in tradition with Homecoming giving the class a busy beginning. The class play, the prom, and the many preparations for graduation filled the year with activity.

An academic awareness and atmosphere prevailed throughout their high school career. Graduates left Malabar with a sense of accomplishment and a feeling of confidence in meeting the future.
